I can't wait to have people for dinner as the living room is so inviting, and my cookbooks are all easy to find. I have already sat in my library browsing through my titles. I learnt so much from you. It was a thoroughly enjoyable experience having you stay. I really like you as a person. Please stay again if you need to stay in my area. I would like to stay in touch."*

Feng Shui Practitioner—Loren McGuire—Sydney (Australia)

Five days I wish last forever! My Feng Shui training included applications for Australia and acknowledged Traditional Owners of this land. Together with Roseline, we spent hours looking at architectural plans, business premises, houses, furniture and importantly front doors. She taught me how to find the ley lines in the earth and how to locate water veins for ultimate health.
