REVAMPED LOOK—AS TIME GOES BY

When we get older the years seem to shrink.

Last March, H.E. Luk Darras, Ambassador of Belgium launched my first book "Your First Easy Steps to Feng Shui" at the Feng Shui conference that I organize every year in Canberra.

A few weeks later in April 2004, my website appeared on the World Wide Web and my life got into another big swirl (I love that).

2005 has already been very challenging for me. While preparing my second book (Feng Shui Steps for Your Career), I moved to Queensland. I still keep Canberra as my special place for teaching and consulting. Of course, I have also organized new workshops in Brisbane and on the Gold Coast and Sunshine Coast. Visit the section 'Courses and Events' for more and monthly updated information. You will now have the opportunity to combine your Feng Shui studies with a great week-end or holidays in the wonderful Queensland weather .

Moving means to me : a new start, a new life lesson. I am still the same person in the same body (even though all my pictures make me look different) but I evolve. So it was time to re-vamp my newsletter and to create brand new workshops.

I extended my consultations to Australia wide and am planning more overseas visits for lecturing and advising.

MANDALA—MAP TO THE SOUL

BY LESLEY CROSSINGHAM

We are spiritually whole beings made of creative energies, light and wisdom, and yet many of us don't understand this until we have an experience of sacred art. Sacred art is any art that connects to your spirit and the most powerful is the mandala.

By creating your own mandala you create a unification of your pure energies, but most importantly it helps you focus and manifest your desires and intentions.

The key is to discover your energies by applying ancient principles, such as those offered through Geomancy/Feng Shui and then combining them with the true Da Vinci code, often called the Golden Mean.

This is what Brisbane-based artist, Lesley Crossingham produces in her unique personal art pieces and offers in her workshops centred on spiritual self-expression. Most importantly, Lesley has joined with Belgian-born Roseline Deleu, a professional geomancer and Feng Shui master who assists you to connect spiritually and intuitively to universal chi energy. Together, in an experimental workshop, they offer you an opportunity to step into this powerful and transformative experience.

Visit www.fengshuisteps.com/courses and print the regularly updated dates & locations of this unique workshop.

Lesley Crossingham joins Roseline Deleu to offer you a unique and very powerful workshop.

THE MEMORY OF 'SHUI'

There are many studies confirming that water ('Shui' in Chinese) has a "memory". One could write a big book on this subject. The Ice Flowers demonstrate the memory of water and emphasises that we should not be careless with this excellent wet, which we have in abundance but in decreasing quality.

If you have never lived in an area with frost, you may not know about the ice flowers. I grew up in the mountains of Bavaria and I remember the wonderful ice flowers forming on the windows when it was very cold outside. They started with little single ice crystals and built up to an excellent picture of the flowers growing in the area - in summer, of course. There were many details in the flowers and I liked the ice flowers as much as the real flowers in spring. The real flowers had the advantage that they smelt excellent and had wonderful colours. The ice flowers had the advantage that I could watch them "growing"

BY HARALD W. TIETZE

within one hour or so, while sitting on the warm fire place and dreaming of summer.

The ice flowers create such a wonderful picture of tiny organised water crystals, that one has to see it to believe the wonder of water memory and structure.

Feng Shui tip from Roseline Deleu:

Design an ice flower and hang your creation in sector 1 to activate Chi in your 'Career' area.

READER EXPERIENCE

FROM NEW CALEDONIA

Dear Roseline,

After reading your book, I decided to put Feng Shui into practice and I must admit that the result happened very fast. One of the first cures that I put into practise was my first collage!

1. In it, I put my little dream car in sector 4. My old car was stolen the day after X-Mas and its wreck found on 1st January. Oouch! I did not budget that expense. I visited a second hand dealer and chose a car. The day I went to sign the contract and take possession of the chosen one... my dream car was just driving in (for sale) at the price I intended to spend. I now drive my dream car!

2. In my love sector there are 2 pictures of a couple and the words 'Is it really you?' A few days later my first lover (of 30 years ago) contacted me out of the blue! He travels the world and we both share the same interests. We contact each other every day re-discovering each other after so long.

I am looking forward to my next Feng Shui adventures. 😊

My first collage manifested my dream car and love!

CHINESE COINS FOR WEALTH

BY ROXANNE

To improve your life with Feng Shui, it is important to first start applying it to your home or living quarters. It is here, that you portray to the Universe what is happening in your inner world, so that it can now extend to your outer world.

Feng Shui surrounds us everyday in every way and according to the laws of Feng Shui, our life and destiny are closely interwoven with the workings of the Universe and nature.

In the world as we know it today – money talks.

The Chinese Coins enhancement may not make you a millionaire but may help in creating that little bit of extra money that you may need from time to time.

Firstly, the most important factor is to clear the clutter in all areas of the home and to apply enhancements to the other seven sectors of the Bagua, to create a balance of flowing energy.

Chinese Coins:

- Place six or eight Chinese coins under the front door mat to attract money to the home.

- Tie three Chinese coins with red ribbon on the inside of the front door handle.
- Place three Chinese coins in your wallet or purse and never remove them.
- Place eight Chinese coins near the phone for more business or in the account book like a bookmark.

This is an excerpt from Roxanne's book "Feng Shui – a practical and easy guide. www.fengshuilaws.com

A GREAT 'CURE' TO LESSEN FAMILY TENSIONS

BY ROSELINE DELEU

We meet people for a reason, a season or for life.

When I met Lesley, only the universe knew what this new friendship was going to create. She is into guides and angels, I am into Feng Shui, houses and businesses.

As we both moved to Brisbane around the same time, we decided to stay in contact because our first Heart and Harmony conference was planned for end of February in Sydney.

We had an interesting exchange of our experiences and I told Lesley that when I saw her drawings in my clients houses, I intuitively knew where they should hang them. Displayed in one or the other part of the Ba Gua Map, they were creating a vortex of energy helping the person with the actual life lesson she/he was going through at the time of my visit.

I asked her to draw not only my guide, but my family guides (3) to see how this would affect my family relationships.

I must say that the picture had only been up for a few hours when I felt more love and respect between all of us. A new fantastic Feng Shui cure is born!

Part of Lesley Crossingham's special Family Guides Drawings. Display it in a specific part of your house to enhance good family relationships.
